The measure of any community is in its growth.

Glendale Union High School had its beginning September 11, 1911 when 23 students attended the first session in Dr. Hills' back room.

In 1911 GUHS was a back room in a small wooden building with only one teacher.

Today, after 42 years of progress, the GUHS campus consists of 25 class rooms, a study hall, two home economics laboratories, a library, a music hall, a chemistry laboratory, a wood shop, a farm shop, an auditorium, cafeteria, gymnasium, football and track field, stadium, and bus garages.

Housing the equipment necessary for the upkeep of the spacious lawns, playing fields, parking areas, and the shrubbery, requires several buildings.

School Board

The members of the Board of Education of Glendale Union High School work together with Mr. Ashe and the Glendale Student Council in the best interests of the students. The agenda for the year, as planned by the board, is carried out through Mr. Ashe and individual teachers, supplemented with rules made by student representatives. Their teamwork has been a pertinent factor in the development of GUHS into a truly democratic school-community.

These five board members, serving without pay, are rewarded only by the inner satisfaction of seeing a smooth-running institution that fosters harmony among the students, the faculty, and the townspeople. Their diversified professions, too, are typical of democracy in our American communities. Mr. Herriott, president of the board, is a farm supervisor; Mr. Lowe, manages a hardwarestore; Dr. Trueblood, is a dentist; Mr. Auten, a grocer; and Mr. De Bolt, distributor of Standard Oil products.

The pictures and statements in this yearbook will recall vivid memories to all who were associated with Glendale Union High School during the school year. I hope your memories will be happy ones and that you will have a feeling the year was a very profitable one for you.

The important things that every high school student should learn are his responsibilities as a citizen of his school, his community, and his country. I hope that the memories recalled by looking through the pages of this yearbook will help strengthen the determination of all to live a good life and to help others in achieving the same goal.

This scene, repeated innumerable times daily, gives an insight into the grind of Freshman English, required of all first year high school students. Mrs. Hoops supervises a composition lesson in one of her classes.

In the early morning classes, interest varies, from the photographer to a friends paper or even the cracks in the front wall, while some students are able to concentrate on the mathematics assignment, with the assistance of Mr. Stapley, class instructor. In spite of the unearthly hour, much was accomplished during the year along the line of studies and other activities.

The frosh, like "bug eye" in the foreground, quickly overcame their fright and confusion; they adjusted to high school life and settled down to studying and learning. These boys and girls are the future scientists, engineers, school teachers, and citizens of our country.

The long and short of Glendale High is depicted here by Charles Hiberline, freshman, and Eddie Brown, senior. Charles, 4 foot 3 inches tall, has a long way to go before he reaches Eddie's 6 foot 5 inch stature. It will be a long way too, for Charles to become a senior, but a lot of fun, work, and "growing up" will make these years seem shorter.

Campus Life . . .

These two views of the main building have become familiar sights to students both during school hours and during extra curricular activities. The overcrowding of the present facilities have made it necessary to run classes in three shifts, the first one beginning at 7:15 a.m. and the last one ending at 5:45 p.m. At other times when passing thoughts of sports, plays, or dances were more in mind than studies.

The Informal

atmosphere of Glendale Union High School is carried out in the cafeteria, where students may play the piano, select songs on the juke box, or enjoy the hot meal that is served daily. The building is also used for studying, as a classroom, and for tete-a-tete conversations. Students and teachers can meet informally over their coffee and doughnuts.

The Cafeteria's

good food kept students waiting in line during both lunch hours.

Because

they liked to sing

and because they thought others might enjoy hearing them, six girls spent a busy winter performing for various clubs and organizations. Called the Glendettes, they also presented dances and melodramas.

Shown in a borrowed portable dressing room just before leaving for a program are JoAnn Akers, Betty Akers, Sandra MacGurn, Lois O'Harra, Arlyn Moores and Phyllis Lowe.

Janice Robinson is shown operating the coke machine installed by the Student Council at the beginning of the school year in the cafeteria.

During the first part of the year scenes like the two above were quite common and the dances became staring contests. As the year progressed, however, the dances were better attended and the now acquainted students had an enjoyable time.

In October, when a Cardinal Hi-Lites reporter uncovered the story of the GUHS war memorial, damaged by vandals and hocked at a Phoenix foundry with an original unpaid debt, a school and city wide campaign began to raise money and return the monument to its pedestal in the stadium. The freshman class sponsored a spaghetti dinner that netted $100 and through wide publicity, the remaining donations came from school organizations, local civic groups, and an anonymous contributor. In March it was returned to the high school after repairs were made.

The band pom pom girls, and cheerleaders did more than their share in making each show a success.

Interesting

Some courses are designed to help students qualify for specific jobs or to meet requirements for higher schools. Mechanical drawing does both. Successful students may go from the classroom to a drafting office or continue on to a technical college.

Practical

The class in office practice attracts more female students than male students. Many graduates from this course go on to good paying jobs in the community. Special equipment for this type of instruction runs into thousands of dollars.

The study hall was filled mostly with underclassmen in order that they establish good study habits in their high school career, but anyone that wished to study or do research had at their disposal the facilities of one of the finest school libraries in the state.

Higher Learning

Once a week the students of the chemistry classes experiment with different chemicals to note the reactions and their effects on different elements. The students here have set up an apparatus to collect nitrogen gas.

Junior members of the photography class put into practical use their knowledge of chemicals. Here they are shown making contact prints of pictures they have snapped around campus. Later on in the year they learned to work with print enlargers and even color work.

The laboratory of the biology department is an excellent place for the GUHS students to learn the answers to some of life's mysteries. Such things as plants that lay traps for unsuspecting insects attract wide interest among the students.

Shop Classes . . .

Home Economics

A gun expert from Luke Air Force Base displayed his collection of firearms before members of the safety education class. The drunkometer was another feature demonstration of the class. It is being explained by chief of police Stan Van de Putte, one of the several special speakers visiting the class during the semester course. Foreign languages also play an important role in classroom studies. They not only broaden students outlook, but provide a background for many of our English words.

Sunnyslope High School

Overcrowding of facilities at Glendale made the construction of a new plant in Sunnyslope necessary. Part of the new school, that will be ready for us eat the beginning of next school year, is pictured. Top, the gymnasium; bottom, a portion of the classroom area.

e visual aids department is an important part of the high school. It not only provides films for entertainment, but educational es as well.

Visiting the Glendale News plant is one of the many activities the junior journalists do to better acquaint them with journalism.

Before going on their field trip to Mexico, world geography students stopped to have the Mexican vice-consolate sign their visitors permits.

During the annual aeronautics field trip to the Goodyear Naval Air Facility, students became familiar with the "moth-balling" process of preserving airplanes, and inspected some of the stored aircraft.

Aptitude tests were given to seniors in November by the Arizona State Employment Agency. This testing program was designed to give students an idea of what kind of work best suited them. Earlier, students took preference tests to determine the type of work they liked.

Thirteen colleges and universities sent representatives to GUHS in February to speak on Further Educational Opportunities Day. All juniors and seniors attended this third annual program set up to help students discover opportunities in education after high school.

Upperclassmen who attended the fifth annual Career Day, held in October, had a choice of forty different occupations and vocations to learn about. The students had a chance to attend three different sessions, designed to help them decide on a career.

New Faces at School

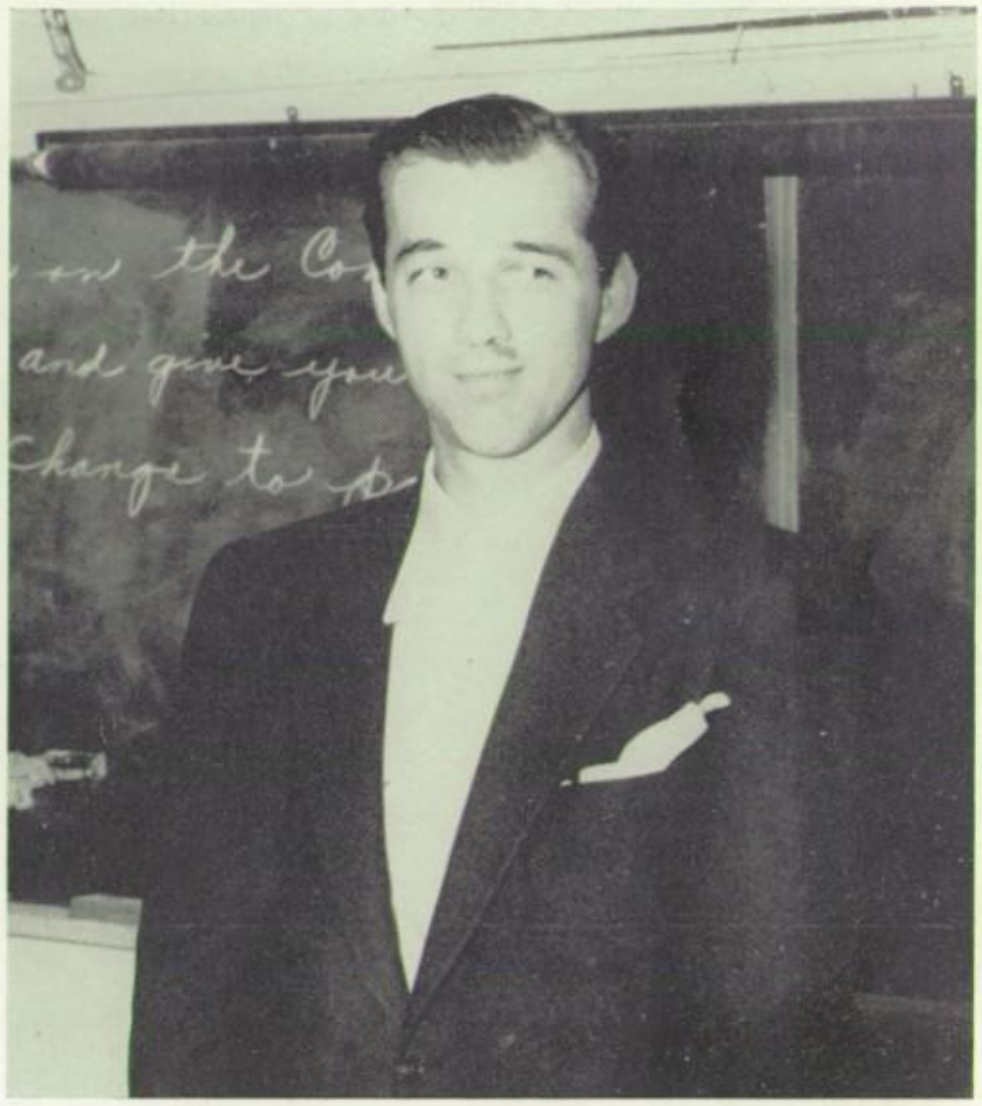
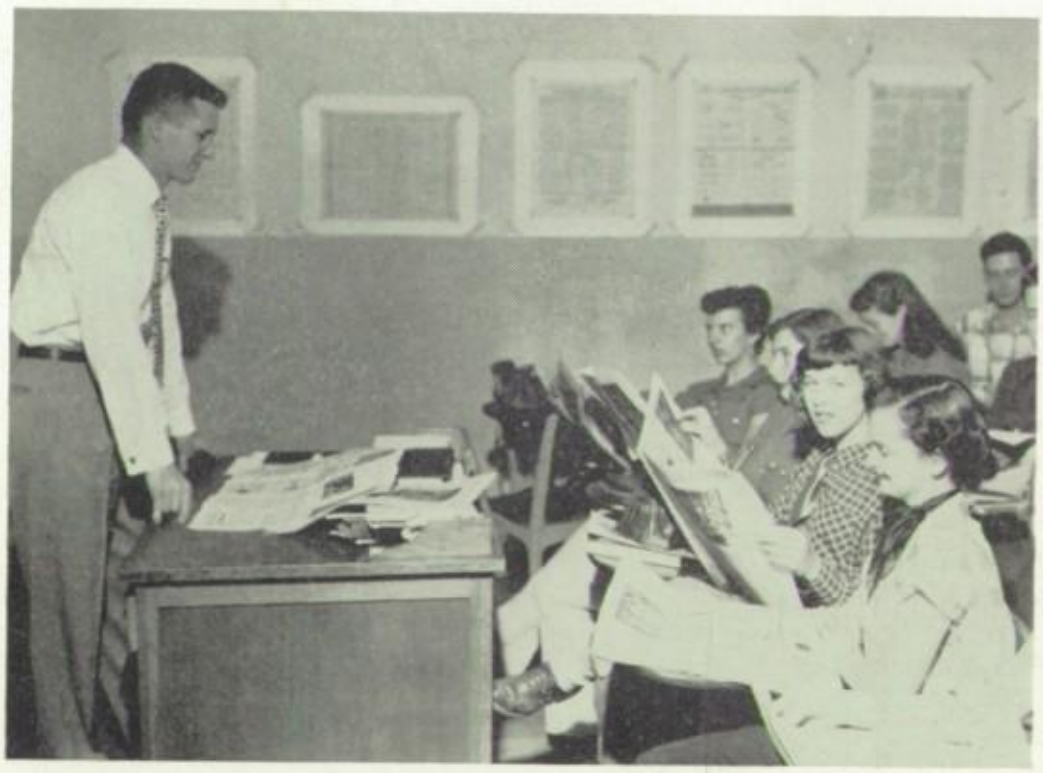
Mrs. Evelyn DeVansure, bookkeeper



Mr. Paul Finot replaced Mr. Eugene Zylstra at the semester. He began by teaching civics, American history and world geography. His new approach to teaching soon gained him the co-operation of students.



During both semesters, student teachers from ASC at Tempe were on the school campus. They observed teachers at work and attempted to gain experience and knowledge of the problems of the teaching career.

Mr. Chauncey B. Coor, Principle of Sunnyslope High School.

- - - CARNIVAL - - -

High winds did not dampen high spirits on the day of the big show. By sun-set the GUHS campus had been turned into a wonderland of fun and frollic.

Leadership Class

The Leadership class, under the direction of Mr. Zinser, acted as a committee of the Student Council and planned and ran the second annual GUHS Carnival. Construction, layout, advertising, and arrangements for the gala event were handled by the group. After the show the same group were on hand to remove the booths and clean up the grounds.

Thrills

One of the main thrills of the evening, at least for Carol Miller, was the naming of Miss Glendale for 1953. Bill Crouch handled the arrangements for the contest—for which he is receiving his reward. In the background is Dick Gilbert who acted as master of ceremonies for the evening.

Sidelights

One of the sidelights of the carnival was the Grecian farce sponsored by the sophomore class. During the course of the evening, three audience were ushered in and out of room 22 where the production was held. Elsewhere on the campus the GAA sponsored a "Haunted House."

Royalty

The fifth annual homecoming climaxed the football season when alumni gathered on campus for their reunion. Rosita Knox and Jim Hampton were crowned queen and king of the affair at the Glendale-Yuma game.

Another coronation also highlighted February as Lorene Heinzig was pronounced "Sweetheart" and reigned over the Sweetheart Dance. Attendants Joetta Mirick and Manya Conovaloff completed the court.

The faculty-varsity charity basketball game played as part of the annual GUHS March of Dimes campaign again proved to be the best attended assembly of the year, one of the most enjoyable, and surely a profitable one for the crippled children.

The junior class sponsored Slave Dance raised funds for the Junior-Senior Prom. Twenty-two junior girls were auctioned and sold to the highest bidder, then acted as slaves to their owners at the dance.

One of the features of the all-school follies was the Clown Dance. Songs, dances, acts and other familiar sights around a circus made up the program. Also featured were acrobats, wrestlers and a Mexican bullfight.

Master of Ceremonies Art Plate helped tie the fine acts of the Girl's Follies together and round out the very successful show.

Dale Ellis Pinched

Teacher Found To Have Six Wives; All Assist In Alimony Payments

By Sy Anton

One of the most unusual cases in the history of the Glendale police department ended yesterday with the arrest of Dale Ellis, the "Bluebeard Casanova," Chief of Police Wm. De Putti announced that Ellis had married six wives by proxy after a courtship through the mail.

This matrimony fiesta has never been out of his wives in person, for Ellis says that he can't bear separation to the mail man a week, though. The six wives, he married, labored Ellis a week. All were told the same story: he had to raise $2,000 to get his father out of jail so that he could take the "true love" and they could live happily ever after.

Neighbors became suspicious when Ellis quit his $36.00 a year school teaching job, but continued to live in the style to which he was accustomed. They also thought it a bit odd that he had six sexual grand greet the postman every Saturday.

Although officers started investigating Ellis on suspicion of mail robbery, they knew they had stumbled on to something when they found six framed marriage licenses with the amount of the monthly "message" written in red on the license.

When asked for a statement, Ellis stated "They kept me in good cheer. If I had it to do over again, I would marry seven—that is my lucky number."

Masked Bandits Steal Atom Bomb On Way Here

The atomic bomb explosion in the GUHS chemistry lab was cancelled. The bomb has been taken on route from Tombstone to Glendale.

The bomb was being transported via train prior to Glendale when masked bandits, dressed in Sporting Goods suits, took the bomb by force.

According to the driver "Hoppy" who was captured". The bandits seized him a cliff and were accompanied by the bandits twenty feet from the ground. The bandits then was suspended from a rope in an undignified manner until help arrived.

There were made to explode the bomb in the gymnasium—the purpose being to enlarge it. Officers are the bombs.

Mr. Sewright Caught Breaking Into Booth

Student teacher, Mr. Sewright, was caught browsing into the girls room in the men hall Wednesday.

The rumor given was that Mr. Sewright had been told that student teachers were in training but pay. He was anxious to call his wife and the truth was the answer unknown.

Attention was called to the fact that Mr. Sewright was dressing in the clothes issued to dress, jackets, and scarves in the all-wee hrs.

School Will Have To Close One-and-a-Half Months Early

BULLETIN: FLASH

It was just announced to the press the building that GUHS will close one and a half months earlier!

At the last meeting of the Glendale police and fire department it was voted to condemn GUHS and ordered the school to be closed as soon as possible.

A number of reasons were given for the order to close the school. One of the main reasons was the poor sewage conditions. Over 1,500 new students recently enrolled here at GUHS, causing a strain that the buildings are adequate and safety accountable without it be causing a hazard as it is now.

It was voted at the meeting that students were being crowded terribly while it was impossible for them to catch their classes on time due to the immense crowds in the halls and door ways.

The parents were complaining about their high doctor bills due to they high school kids spent coming home with black eyes, cuts, and bruises from pushing and fighting their way to class.

Students in the closing of the school was not the news throughout the community. The latest persons interviewed are quite happy that their children will now be safe from the bad conditions around the school but they feel some action should be taken to keep the students off the streets, and from being a nuisance to the citizens of Glendale. It was unanimously proposed that since the school was condemned that they be forced by the city to patrol the streets and see that students are kept in hand.

The closing of GUHS was greeted quite differently by the low students interviewed. The students are found to be greatly excited and disappointed. They feel very sad to think of their dear alma mater being torn down and completely destroyed. The girls are declaring that it is a shame to have to leave their many dates and of dress parades. They will put a stop to the loving of Easter and spring outfits.

$750,000 Gym Planned For Girls

Glendale High is to have a new $750,000 girls gym!

The vote decided at a meeting of the school board and a group representing the businessmen and other citizens of Glendale and many organizations.

The vote bid was offered 10 Builders and Bullock Construction Company of El Monte. Their bid, well known because they appropriated $75,000 for the building. Three money campaigns, including one box of wheat, will be held to raise the rest of the money.

Marijuana Plants Found Growing In School Biology Department

The quiet hamlet of Glendale was shocked yesterday with the revelation that a recent wave of narcotics addiction reach, new high school. After three months of extensive detective work, the Glendale police department has uncovered what has aided the growing of marijuana plants in the classroom.

The apprehension of several students "pushers" led police to a crop of plants 1½ feet high, in plain view on a table in the biology room. In a filing cabinet located in the instructor's office, a secret seed to dry and cure the leaves was found.

L. J. Knoff and Steve Rosen, Biology teachers, were arrested on a narcotics charge and are in two counts of contributing to the delinquency of minors.

When questioned, Mr. Robert Ashe, principal of GUHS, expressed in horror, "Why, I have often noticed those plants and complimented the students and teachers on how well they were doing. I had no idea what their aims or they would have been hidden."

The excuse given for the marijuana was that the Biology class needed the money to buy tropical fish.

Judges Picked For 'Miss Glendale': Preliminaries Set For April 18

Judges have been named for the Miss Glendale Pageant to be held at the GUHS Carnival, April 18. According to Bill Crouch, Pageant Chairman three judges

First All-School Follies Performances Given

The first all-school follies got off with a big bang Monday and Tuesday nights, March 23 and 24. Dances, songs, solos and the familiar sights around the circus made up the program.

The extravaganza began with a chorus parade down the aisles and up on the stage to sing "Three Rings". Then a dance with 16 members dressed in floral costumes with hats and sort.

Tightrope acts, clowns, and acrobats were a few highlights of the program. Mr. Carter Edwards, physical education class provided entertainment with wrestling, and their there was also the usual side show.

The show went south of the border for one number with a bullfight and dance. Feathers, a seal, a bull and "Blame the horse on the Mexy go round were part of the extravaganza.

Art Fiore was ringmaster the first night, and Mumford Graham served as master of ceremonies the second night.

Plans were announced this week for the pageant preliminaries to be held April 8 in the auditorium. This will really be the important show as far as judging is concerned. The preliminaries will consist of both an bathing suits and formals as well as performing their talent, while at the Carnival they will do only those things that they are best in. Bill Barkley, Chamber of Commerce president, will be Master of Ceremonies at the preliminaries. Judging Dick Gilbert, General Manager of KTYL Radio and Television will be Master of ceremonies at the final judging. Announcer of 20 votes will be charged at the preliminaries.

Betty Lou Lindly, Miss Autumn of 1952 will be here on Carnival Day. She will give the prizes and give a short talk on what it means to be Miss America and the advantages that the pageant affords the contestants.

School Carnival Has 24 Entries

Twenty-four booths and rooms have been reserved for the coming carnival, April 18 on the south lawn of GUHS. Out of 17 carnival clubs and clubs entering, all booths have been taken except one. There will be two booths leading the year, one at each end of the yard.

Mr. Ernest Ewart's leadership class, which has taken on building the 21 booth projects, reports near completion. Although the definite plans of classes is undecided as of yet it is probable that the stadium bar loses the booths for future activities.

The executive Student Council committees mentioned the $200 limit for building costs. The booths, which are taken out of the Student Body Treasury, will be returned by charging those who enter booths an entry fee of $10, of which $5 will be returned to the booth owner.

Those entering booths and their entries are: Future Farmers of America, galletta game; Red Mangor club, Bird Cage Hunter; junior class toast the toasted and money throw; journalism class, wet-sponge throw with targets as targets; Girls League, ring toss and serve coke; the senior class, a spanking throw.

Fifteen Students Tour Hospital

Fifteen GUHS students attended the open house tour of the Maricopa County General Hospital, March 26.

Bringing to a climax Arizona State's Sesquicentennial Week, the tour of Good Samaritan, St. Joseph's and Memorial Hospitals, the prospective student nurses will be given an opportunity to see how modern hospitals work, what they have to offer, and what will be required of them before registered nurses.

Attention will include a visit to the anesthesiology branch, surgery and the operation rooms.

A movie "Candidate of Honor and Duty" and a tea will close the day.

Those attending from Glendale were Betty Bostwick, Sue Gilbert, Betty Akers, Sue Schaffer, Shannon Smith, Burton Lamb, Kay Jacobs, Ruth Hardy, Jerry Hall, Sharon Byrne, Fay Mellor, Elaine Baldwin, Grace Bittick, Ginger Peterson and Susan Schreck.

Students Study Social Problems

A variety of social problems is being made by a group of students at GUHS. This is not a club but rather a study group and one of the activities are unofficial.

Some students interested in social science visited the Maricopa County Hospital a few weeks ago. The group is an outgrowth of this trip. Mr. Paul Hunt believes that students on a group will be able to gain access to some places that they would not be admitted as individuals.

The Phoenix Indian, the American Institute for Foreign Trade and Luke Air Force Base are suggested sites for field trips. The group will probably be taken on weekends and holidays.

A meeting was held last Monday night at room 11, but any student interested in the group are still able to go on the excursions.

Some of the students are: Sharon Wilde, Bill Fay Gibbs, Nancy Barker, Betty Akers, Jack Burns, Sue Shaffer, Charlie Sue, Bob Bodrie, Wayne Mooney, Beatrice Gardner, Arlene Moore, Jack Dunn

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The Climax of
A Wonderful Year

The dance of the year was the junior-senior prom and promanade. The semi-formal affair was held at Jokake Inn where a nine-piece dance band provided the music for dancing done around the pool. Soft lights and dancing under the stars created an exotic atmosphere. The evening was climaxed by a full course dinner.

The pool was open for swimming for those who wished to swim and games were scheduled for those who didn't dance.

Although this was the first of its type given the annual junior-senior prom was a huge success.

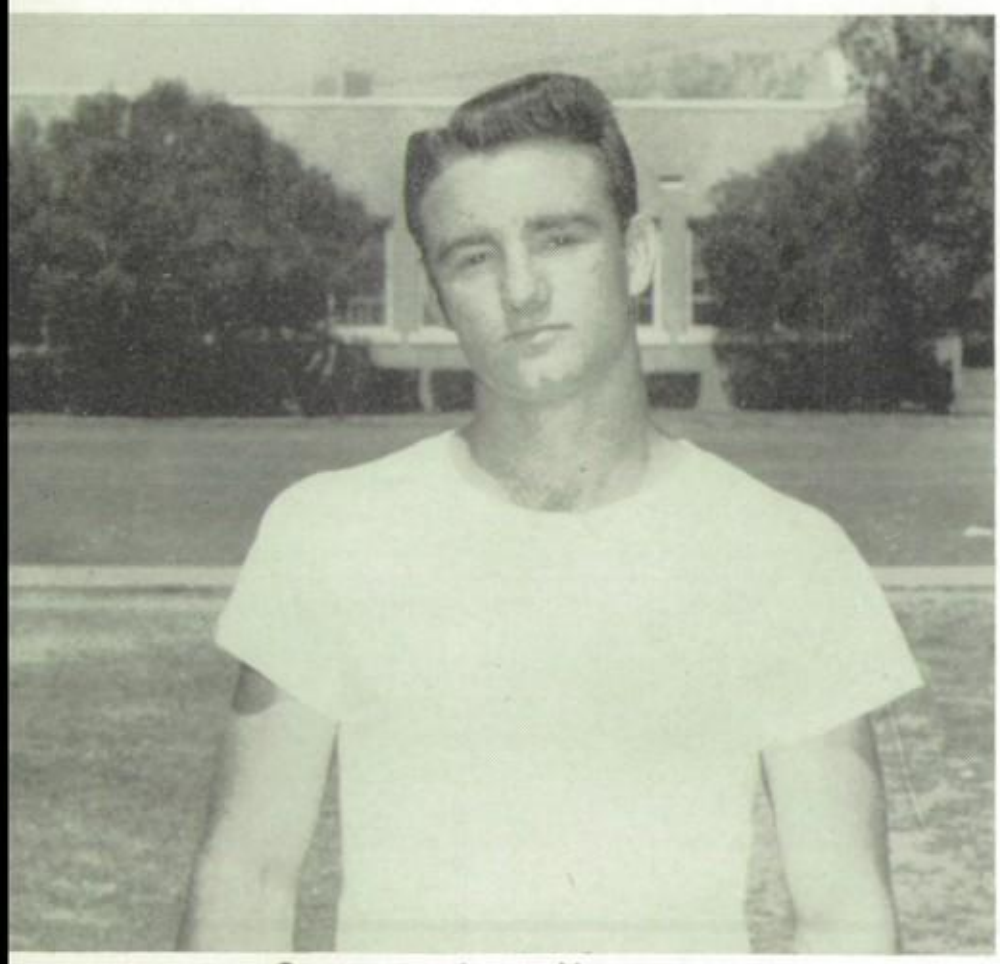
The Cards dropped the first game to the Prescott Badgers by a decisive score of 24-0. Best yard gainer was a Hampton to Evans combination via airmail.

A weak defense proved to be the downfall of the Birds as they lost to a rough Douglas eleven, 33-10.
In the Amphi game, the Panthers seemed to know the combination to the Card's defense. The final score stood 30-13.
The Hornets of Tech proved to be the next thorn in the side for Glendale, the cards going down under the barrage 46-7.
Remembering last year's humiliating upset North Hi tasted revenge to the tune of 47-7. This birds opened fast and looked good until they fumbled and gave North a chance for their first tally.



Co-captain, James Hampton

Co-captain, Denny Harman

Aided by fumbles and pass intercepticns, West tromped Glendale 47-0. The Card's defense showed improvement. Tempe squeezed out a win 19-14.

As the season wore on the Birds began to show decided improvement, but dropped the Bisbee tilt 27-7. Glendale's lone score was the result of a 70 yard drive spearheaded by quarterback Jim Hampton.

Glendale played its best game of the year against the strong Mesa eleven. For a while, it looked as though the first win of the season was in the bag for the Glendale ironmen. The final score stood: 39-37.

The home team remained winless as they dropped the last game of the season to the Yuma Criminals, at Yuma, 21-12.

Craig Anderson was elected "Most Valuable Player" of the '52 season by vote of his teammates. The hard-hitting guard aided the team in every way possible throughout the season with his downfield blocking and hard tackling.

Co-captain Jim Hampton was elected for second all-state Halfback. The hard running senior did more than his share to hold our team together through one of the roughest seasons ever seen at Glendale.

The Jayvees fared better than the varsity this year. Under the watchful eye of Coach Dale Ellis, the team beat four of the better teams in the state, finishing the season with a 4-win 5-loss record.

The band added color to the games with their half time performances.

The Football-letter assembly was the climax of the 1953 season.

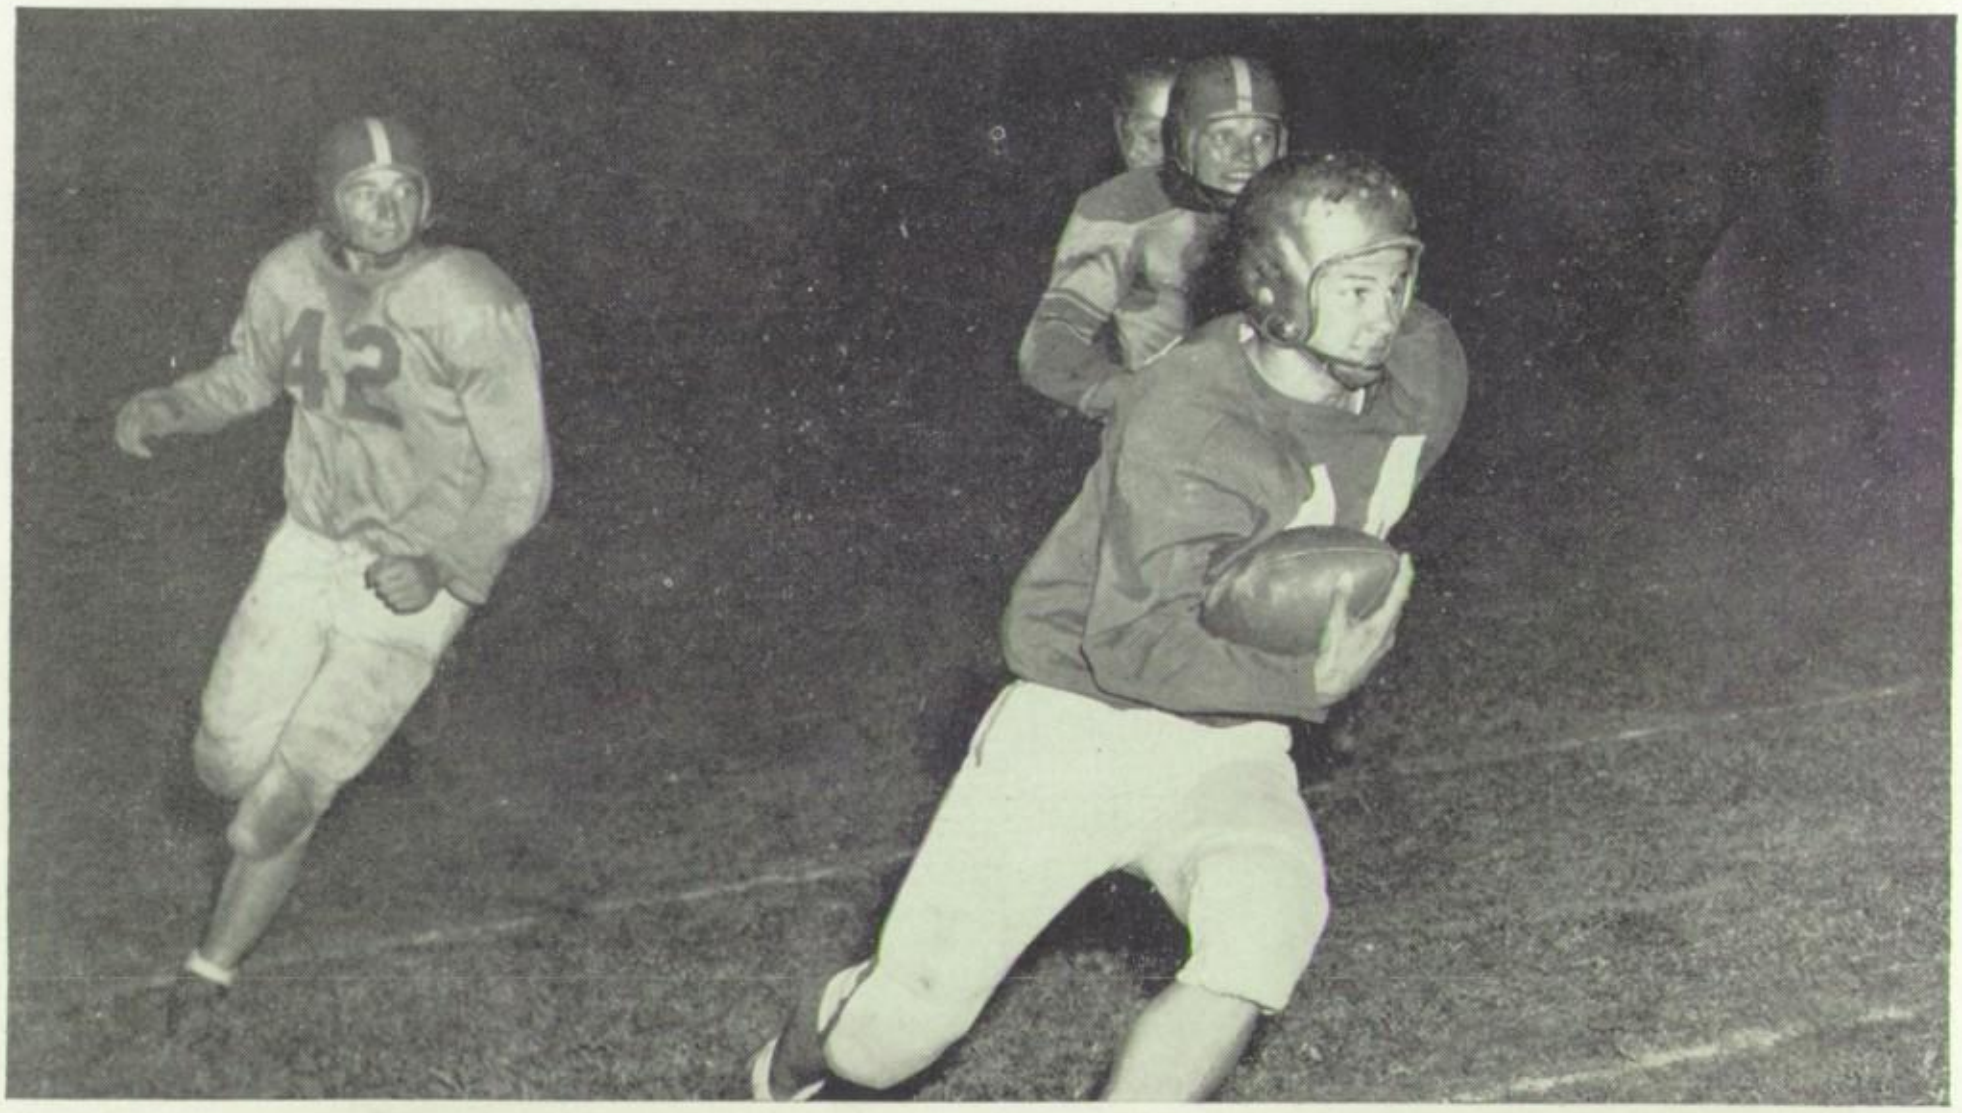
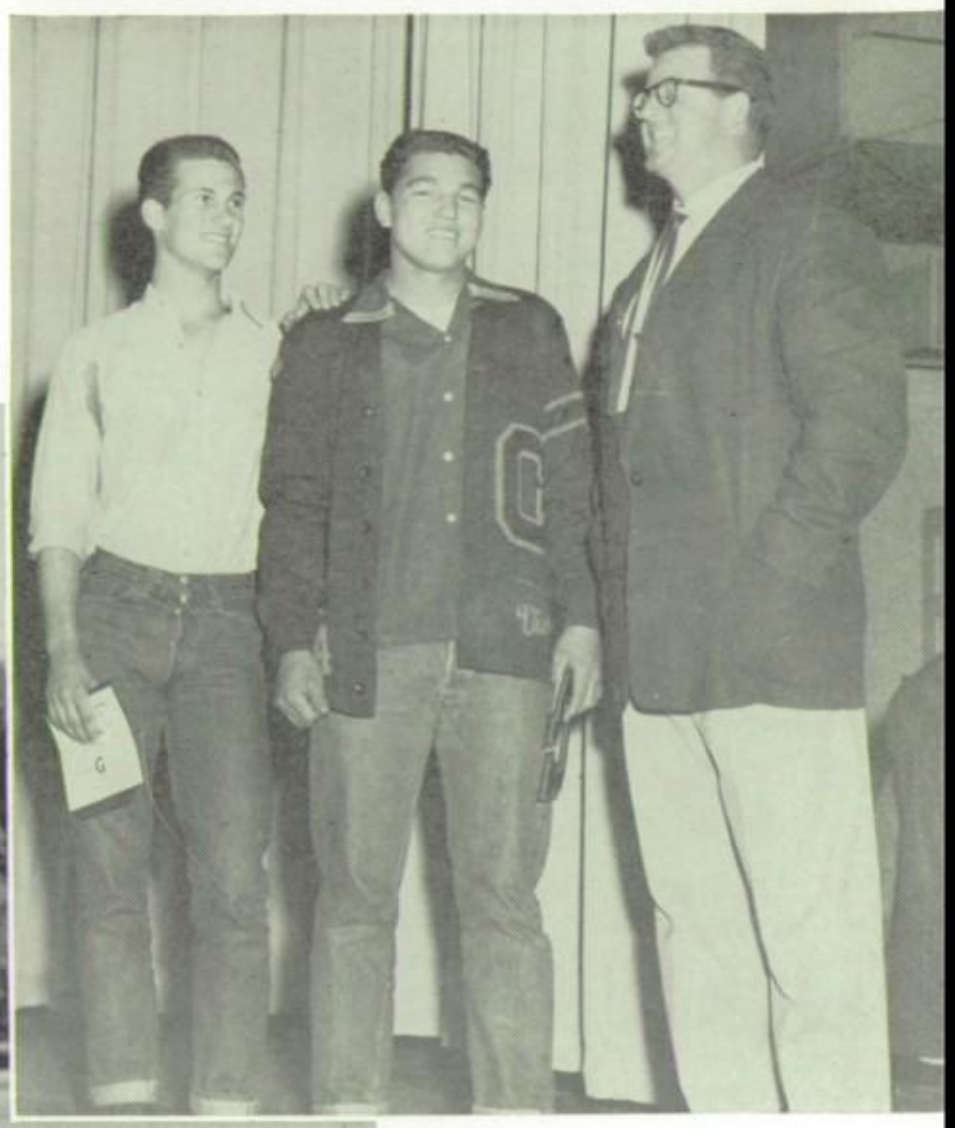
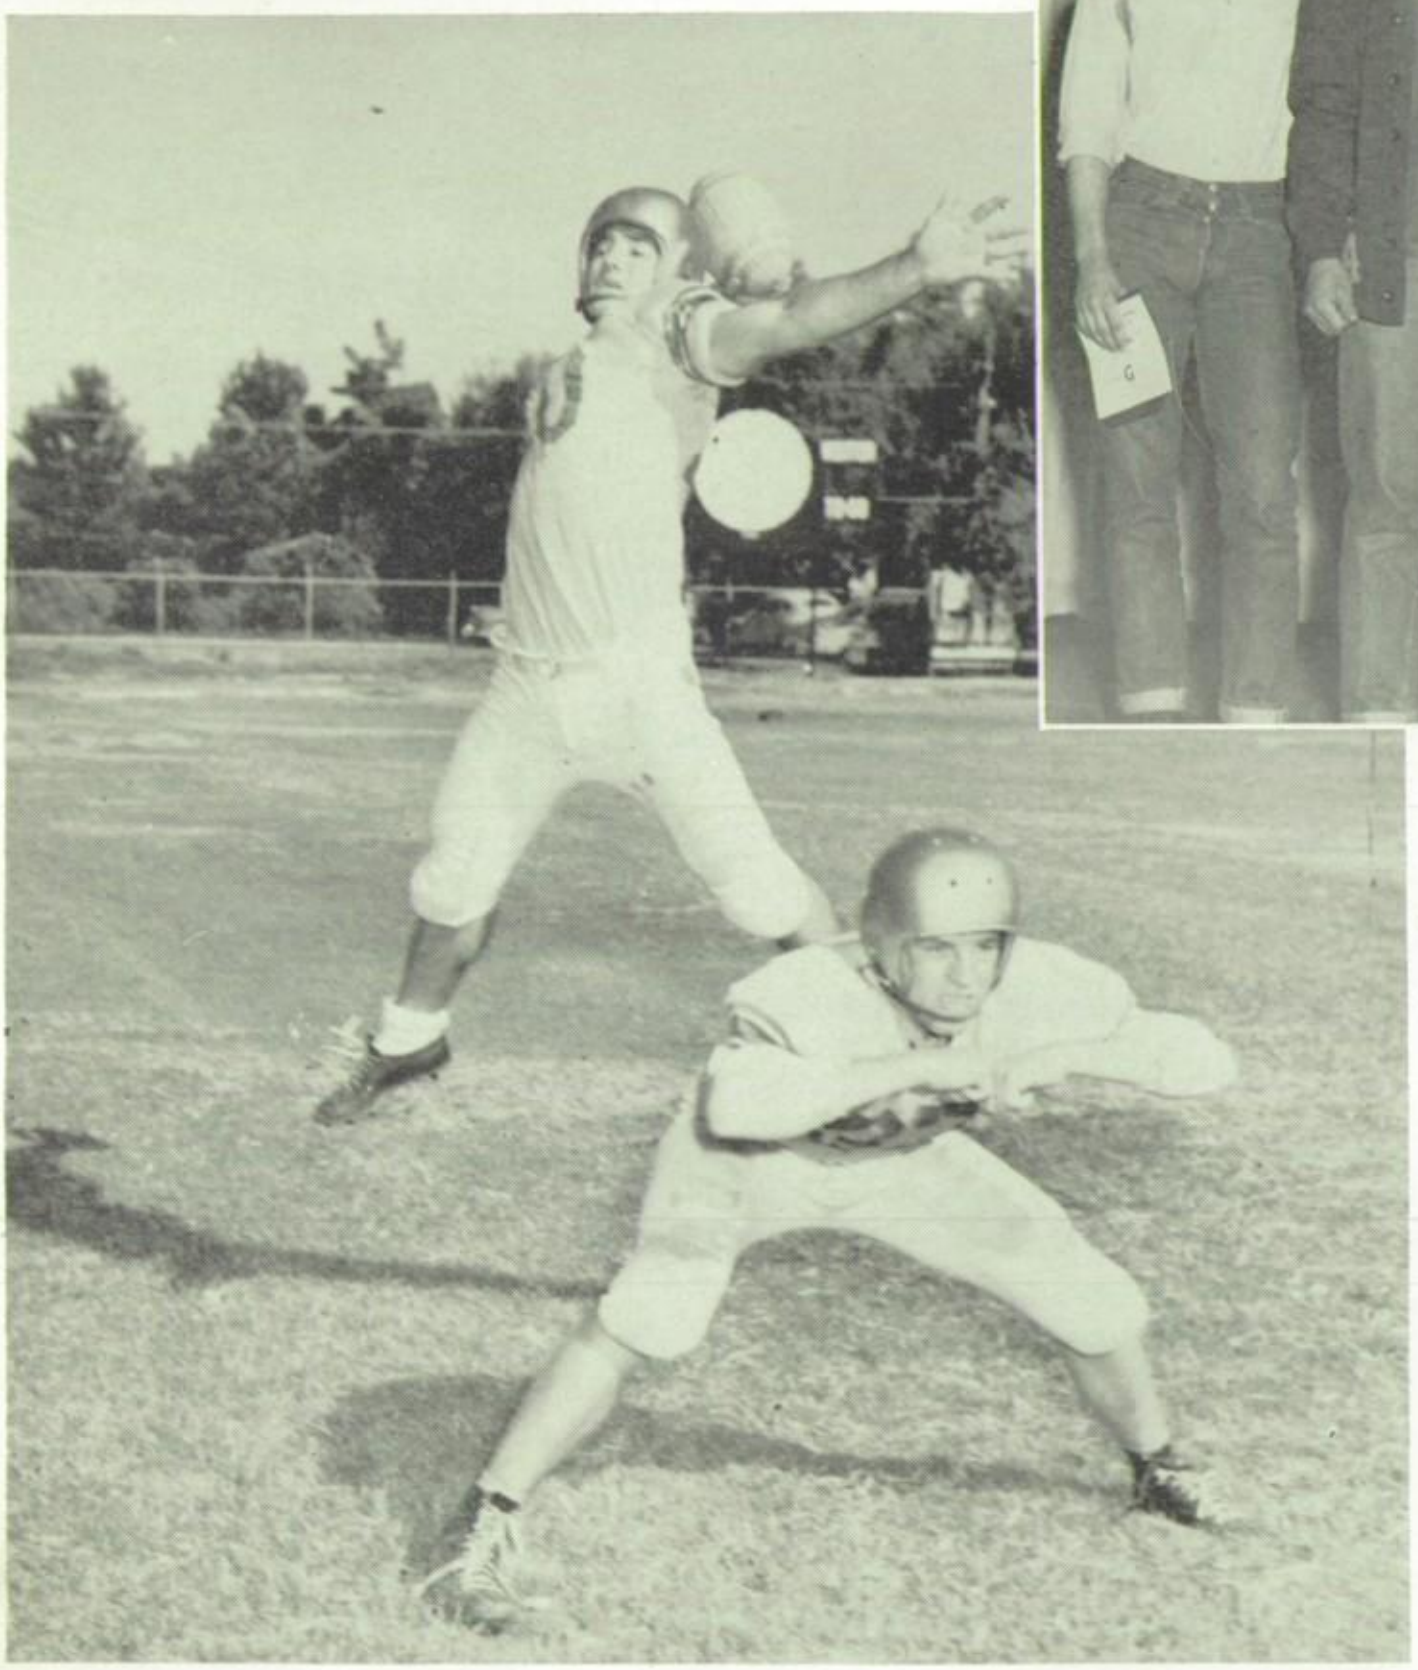
Below—Jim Hancock packs the leather for the Chicks against Prescott for a touchdown. Giving chase are two Prescott huskies.



Coach Clyde "Ike" Dougherty poses for a shot with next year's co-captains, Jim Young and Vic Lopez. The two boys expect to lead Glendale through a successful season next year.





Jim Hampton, nominee for second-string All-State halfback, goes up for a short one under the protection of center, Jim Taylor. "Hamp" was co-captain of this year's team along with lineman Denny Harmon.

BASKETBALL

The Cards dropped their opener to a fast Amphi team, 63-7, High scorer for Glendale was Ken Barber, with 15 points. Next on the list was Tucson. The Badgers' long shots baffled the Cards, but the biggest weakness was free throws. The Cards made only 16 out of 47 tries. High point man was Dan Viscaya with 15 points.

The Cards lost to St. Mary's, North, and Yuma. Scores were 53-45, 74-53, and 38-35, respectively. High scorers for Glendale were Barber and Mensendick. The Cards took their first win of the season by defeating Peoria.

Don Mensendick was nominated for the second string all-state team and Ken Ashinhurst was awarded Honorable mention.

The cagers dropped two league games next. They lost to Tech, 64-48. Mensendick was high scorer with 22 points. PU took a tough one from the Cards by a score of 57-44. High scorer was, again, Mensendick.

The Jayvees had a good season. Coached by Mr. Dale Ellis, the chicks racked up 8 wins and 6 losses. Mike Briggs and Paul Swartz, two of the scrappy club's players, gave assistance to the varsity.

The freshmen, coached by Mr. Schmidt, won 10 and lost 5.

Baseball

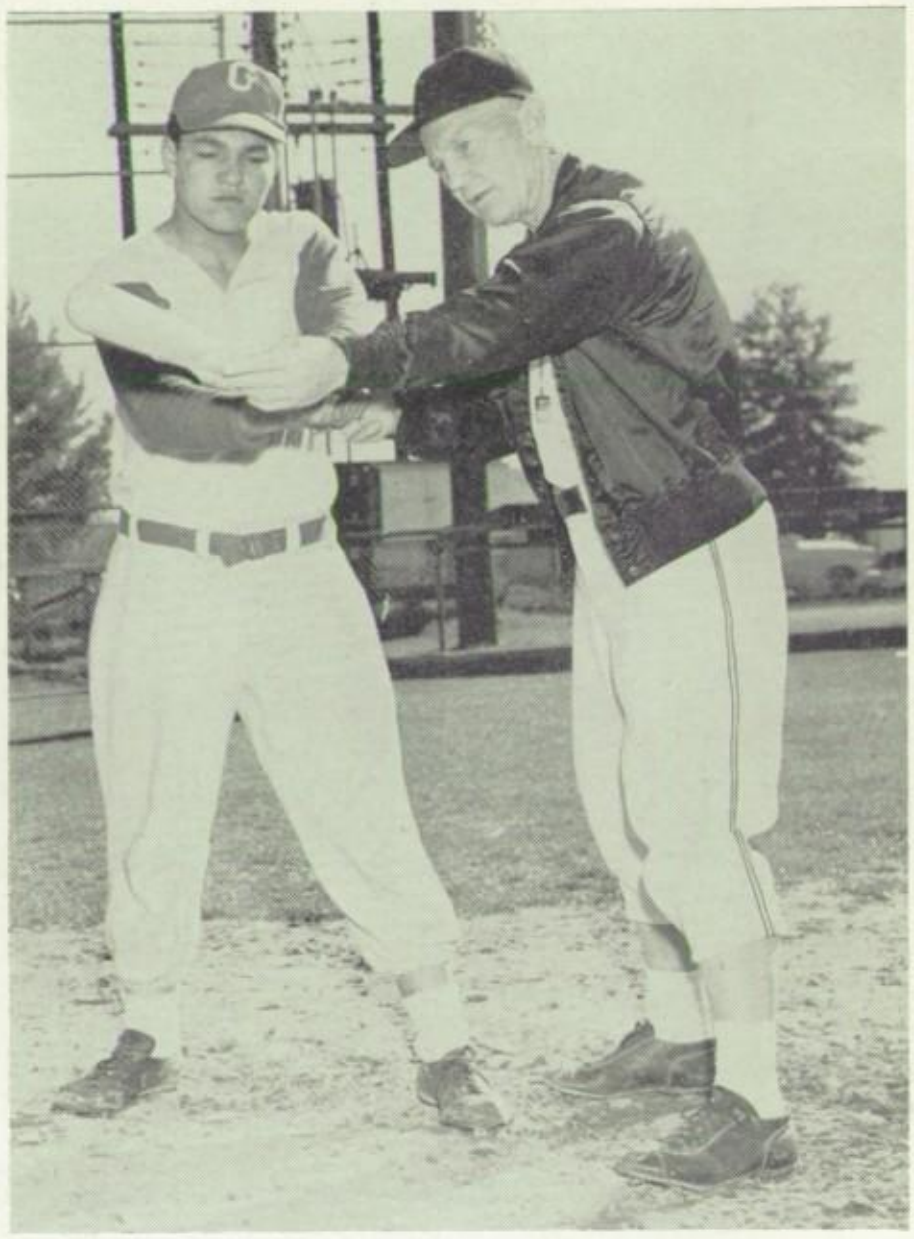
The Glendale High School baseball team had a fair season in 1953. Composed mostly of juniors and sophomores, there were a few seniors who saw action. Among these were Rex Brewster, pitcher and Jim Hampton, outfielder; Jim Fowler, outfielder; Jerry Bunch, catcher; Harold Gentry, third-sacker; Bill Evans and Craig Anderson, outsiders. The weakness was in the hitting and shortage of pitchers. The Cards looked good in the field. There will be many returning veterans next year and according to Coach Crouch, "we should really go places."



Coach Robert Crouch

Track

Track

Above—The Glendale Invitational Track Meet was bigger than ever this year. There were many records broken. A Benson boy, Eddie Lee, walked off with this year's top honors.

Shown at left is Ken Barber, 6'5", shot-putter and discus man. Ken set a new record of 52'10½" for the shot in the Glendale Invitational this year. He also took first place in the discus. He is the record holder for the shot in Arizona. Barber is also active in basketball, and, only a junior, shows great promise in both sports.

Tennis

The varsity tennis team has done considerably better than most GUHS varsity teams so far this year. With a total of ten matches played, the experienced senior squad has racked up seven wins with only three losses. There are still nine matches remaining on their schedule as this annual goes to press. Under the competent eye of Coach Saban, netters Jerry Kopke and Fred Dye gathered top honors during valley tennis tournaments.

Coach Bill Saban

Tennis

At left is Jerry Kopke displaying the trophies won by him and Fred Dye in the Valley Junior Tennis Tournament. Jerry took the Class A singles, and then teamed up with Fred to cop the doubles cup. Coach Saban says that Jerry has good form and is quick to learn. He should go far in the game.

Mr. Golf GUHS, Eugene Zylstra

Golf

Coach Eugene Zylstra has molded a very good golf team in the year and a half that he spent with us. The Glendale team is a hard team to beat. Coach Allen who took over in Zylstra's place at the semester has continued the good work. Golfing has a bright future at GUHS in the years to come.

Coach Owen Allen took over the duties of Mr. Zylstra with the golf club at the semester.

Once in a lifetime! Stanley Holbert shot a hole-in-one at the Wigwam course.

Girls Sports

In the fall of 1946 Mrs. Martin began her teaching duties at GUHS. Girls athltics was at a standstill. In the last 7 years many chances have taken place. The addition of Miss Fredell to the girls P.E. department in 1950 made many of these changes possible.

Pictured are Miss Fredell and Mrs. Martin with equipment which represents sports and activities which they have introduced and sponsored at GUHS.

Many would think that there could be nothing more added to "the states best girls athletic program" but either coach would assure you that they have many more ideas for improvement.

One of the four activities started this year is modern dance.

Shuffleboard was played in P.E. classes in the gym during the winter months.

Croquet was very popular, though it wasn't started till the end of the year.

Golf was another sport introduced in the athletic program this year.

Girls Tennis Teams

Betty Harkey, Barbara Walker and Kaye Mensendick are pictured holding the trophies they won at the Arizona Closed Tennis Tournament. Betty and Barbara won seconds in the Doubles and Kaye reached the semi-finals in Singles.

Betty Harkey holds the badminton state singles championship cup which she has won the past two years. GUHS will gain permanent possession of the cup if Betty again wins the championship.
